TWO ROBBERIES

Westmoor Track Coach Seized on Holdup Charges

Westmoor High school track coach Kent Herkenrath was being held by Santa Clara county authorities this week after his arrest in connection with an armed holdup of the Emporium department store in San Jose last Tuesday.

Herkenrath subsequently confessed to the daylight holdup February 9 of another Emporium store in Hillsdale.

In statements to police, he blamed compulsive gambling for the two holdups.

Herkenrath, regarded as a model athlete and brilliant track coach, succumbed to the gambling lure two years ago he said from his cell in Santa Clara county jail.

"I was down in San Jose and got into my first card game and the first time I won I gulped a couple of times and something went all over me, I think this is when it all started."

He did not estimate his recent gambling losses but insisted to police that he had no intention of robbery when he went into the Stevens Creek branch of the Emporium last week.

Herkenrath plaintively protested that he was "90 per cent good and only 10 per cent bad, a compulsive gambler." He couldn't estimate his recent gambling losses.

San Mateo police said the young coach had admitted holding up the Emporium at Hillsdale and escaping with $800 in early February.

"What will this do to my students?" the young coach said from his cell. "I only hope they remember the good things I tried to teach them. I hope this will warn them not to fall into the same trap that I did."

Meanwhile, officials of the Jefferson Union High school district, said the coach would be suspended from his job. "Any further dfienite action will have to await the results of his trial," explained schools Superintendent Edward M. Morgan.

Morgan added that the administration will recommend the suspension and a replacement at the board of trustees' meeting Monday night.

He said the new track coach probably will be a Westmoor graduate who is finishing physical education studies this year at San Francisco State college.

In last week's holdup, police said the suspcet walked into the cashier's cage at the San Jose Emporium store and flourished a track starter's pistol at a clerk.

He shoved several envelopes at her and a note that said:

"Any warning and I'll open fire on your customers . . . cooperate and you will never see me again . . . refuse and someone's death will be on your conscience."

The clerk stuffed $706 into the envelopes but secretly pushed an alarm button at the same time.

As the suspect turned away, he ran into a store security officer who seized him.

Herkenrath joined the Westmoor faculty last fall and was highly regarded on campus. Principal Glenn South said:

"I have no idea of why he would want to do such a thing," he said. "He has been a fine teacher."

The young track star had built up a top reputation at San Jose State and CSM. He whipped a group of CSM trackmen into a prime challenging club and was credited with bringing the sport out of the doldrums there.

After serving in the marines for two years he returned here and then joined the Westmoor faculty.

Board Waits For Signed Statement

By RON BATES

The Jefferson Elmentary school board of trustees said Monday it had not received a written statement of the charges by a Daly City resident that two appraisers hired by the district were "not doing the job they were paid for."

The board indicated last week it could take no action until it received a signed copy of the statement read by Matthew Murray, 138 Vista Grande street, a Daly City police sergeant, at a meeting two weeks ago.

Murray said then he would sign the statement and give it to the board.

In the statement, he said that although only one appraiser visited his home in connection with the expansion of the Woodrow Wilson school expansion, two appraisals were given to the district.

Murray said yesterday he intends to sign the statement and bring it to the district office—but just hasn't had the opportunity.

"I've made the charges at a public meeting," he said, "and they have a tape recording of me making them. I don't know why they have to have a written statement before they can do anything at all."

He said the police department

State to Buy More Beaches

Purchase of additional beach property in the Half Moon Bay and Pescadero areas is included in an acquisition program proposed to the legislature by Governor Brown.

Some $2,000,000 of the $20,000,000 statewide program is to be spent in San Mateo county.

Everett Powell, land acquisition Beaches and Parks in Sacramento, said property will be bought to complete the strip of park land from the Miramar hotel supervisor for the Division of south to Kelly avenue in Half Moon Bay. The acquisition will include both beach and upland areas, he said.

When completed, the Half Moon Bay beaches park will extend for four miles along the bay. The acquisition program there has been going on for several years.

Powell said some of the money will be spent to enlarge the state's areas at Pescadero and Bean Hollow beaches.

Governor Brown said that the $19 million fund would be used in 21 specified areas "with special attention to the areas of greatest population" and with priority to beach property in southern and central California.

Schools Unity Meeting Will Be Held Tonight

Unification of five North County school boards into one will be discussed at an augmented meeting at 8 tonight by the San Mateo county committee on school district organization in the Westmoor High school library.

A non-augmented meeting of the county committee is scheduled at 7 p.m.

The committee's augmented session is its first in 90 days.

The five local boards were given that period of time to come up with an alternate plan to the committee's proposal to unify the districts into one encompassing the area presently covered by the Jefferson High school district.

The boards met in several sessions but could not agree on a single plan to present to the committee. Each board plans to present its own ideas to the committee tonight.

Prelude to That Egg Scramble

Easter Bunny Wins Race

It was a mad race between the Easter Bunny and the Weatherman last Saturday in the Annual Easter Egg Hunt by the Daly City Department of Recreation.

The rain held back just long enough for thousands of children at twelve sites to clean the area of approximately 15,000 candy eggs and 36 treasure eggs.

The treasure eggs were redeemed for prizes provided by the Hi Fi Teen club.

Eleven of the hunts went off successfully but at the George Washington school, the children broke before the signal, depriving several children of a chance to look for eggs.

Other hunts were held at Marchbanks Park, Vista Grande school, Colma school, Jefferson Elementary school, M. Pauline Brown school, Daniel Webster school, Thomas Edison school, Vista Mar school and Olympia school.

Helping to make the hunts successful this year were members of the Girl Scouts, P-TA members, the Daly City Belle Tones, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Hi Fi Teen clubs.

Finders of the prize eggs included David Laughlin, Kevin Buckley, Gary Koopman, Donna Tiedje, Carol Lamp, Steve Rolling, Terry Fitzgerald and Fred Garcia.

Annexation Hearing Set Monday Nite

The Daly City Council will hold a public hearing on the annexation of the inhabited portion of Bayshore City Monday night at 8.

If owners of fifty per cent of the assessed valuation involved in the annexation object, Daly City would be prevented from annexing the property, according to City Attorney Paul Hupf.

If there are insufficient protests at the hearing, the hearing will be continued for ten days to allow annexation opponents time to gather more support.

At the end of ten days the council may pass a resolution setting an election in the territory to be added, Hupf explained. The election must be set not earlier than 54 days nor more than 75 days after the resolution is passed.

The board of directors of the Cow Palace have gone on record opposing the move and the San Francisco board of supervisors has supported the protest.

The Cow Palace, however, has only 11 per cent of the assessed valuation in Bayshore City and is powerless to defeat the annexation without support of other landowners.

Lions' Guest

RALPH FLORES, the 42-year-old San Bruno pilot who survived a plane crash and 48 days in the frozen wasteland of the Yukon, will be a guest of Julius Castelan at the weekly meeting of the Daly City-Colma Lions club at 12:10 today in Toto's Pizzeria. Flores will talk briefly of his long ordeal, which he shared with a passenger who also survived, Helen Klaben, 21, of Brooklyn.

Police, Fire Unit On Coast Asked

A police and fire commission is needed in Pacifica to give people more of a voice in local government. This is the opinion of Dan Martin, 195 Surf street, a private investigator and long time Pacifica resident. Speaking before the Pacific Republican assembly last week, Martin said that Pacificans want to say more about how taxes are being spent in its two largest city departments.

Martin denied charges that a commission would dilute authority of Pacifica's city manager form of government or the administrative authority of the fire and police chiefs.

Such a commission, he promises, would be an advisory body. It would make recommendations only and its actions would be subjcet to the approval of the city council.

The commission could serve a valuable unit, Martin thinks, in making recommendations on appointments of police and fire department officers, hearing personnel grievances, reviewing department budgets, assisting in the formation of department policies, conducting hearings for business permits and awarding citations for meritorious service.

Martin argues that commissioners would serve as a sounding board—helping the public to a better understanding of police and fire services.

A group of five citizens, including Martin, John Geary, Robert Kehoe, Al Nonenzo and Ted Thompson, petitioned the city council several months ago to Clean-up Week Is Proclaimed

Daly City Mayor Joseph Verducci proclaimed April 22-29 as Home Improvement Week and urged citizens and residents "to co-operate in the promotion."

In proclaiming the annual week, Verducci said the interest of the community will be served by the full co-operation of all in protecting the appearance of their homes from deterioration and the accumulation of debris and rubbish.

Feyge Named Pacifica Mayor

He's Receptive To Late Calls

By LOIS McNALLY

AN AFFABLE politician who enjoys his constituents even when they phone him at all hours and turn up unannounced at his home is Harold Feyge, new mayor of Pacifica.

Feyge, a councilman since the incorporation of Pacifica, is serving his second term as mayor (he served before in 1960).

He is a man well fitted, his supporters say, to serve as an elected official in a town where citizens think having a voice in local government means telling the mayor all your troubles.

"I don't mind it, I like it," claims Feyge who says he sometimes receives eight to ten calls a day from aggrieved citizens. Possibly the funniest call, he thinks, was the woman who called him because bees were swarming on her back porch.

"Fortunately I had a good friend who was a bee-fancier and was able to handle the situation," says Feyge.

THE CITIZENRY of Pacifica do have to be controlled when

MAYOR HAROLD FEYGE

Will Serve For A Second Time

Councilman Harold Feyge was elected to his second term as mayor or Pacifica last week.

Feyge, who previously served as mayor two years ago, has served as either mayor or vice mayor every year except one since the city was incorporated almost six years ago.

Feyge was nominated for the office by Councilman Harland Minshew, a junior member of the council who last week was elected to replace Feyge as vice mayor. The other reported candidate for the city's highest office, Mrs. Jean Fassler, seconded Feyge's nomination.

A long awaited report from the Pacifica chapter of the American Association of University Women on whether appointive officers should be required to resign before they seek elective positions was submitted to councilmen last night.

The report indicated that a survey of other communities indicated no such action should be taken as it would only serve to discourage persons from accepting appointments when it is difficult enough to get civic minded citi-

MARY'S HELP HOSPITAL

False Rumor Is Hindering Drive, Chamber Is Told

The Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce's board of directors was told last week a rumor that the new Mary's Help hospital "was for Catholics only" was undermining efforts to get a campaign fund in Daly City underway.

Frank Curry, chairman of the chamber's Mary's Help Hospital committee, said he has had reports of a "false rumor" that the new hospital, to be completed in Daly City in 1965 was going to be "a religious thing."

"Nothing could be further from the truth," he said. "This is not just for Catholics but for everybody."

The hospital will be run by the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, a Catholic order of nuns.

The Sisters will give $3,053,000, the state and federal government will provide $3.8 million and campaign committees of the area are expected to raise $1.5 million to build the hospital.

"It will mean jobs and business to Daly City," Curry said. He pointed out that the hospital also will provide emergency service.

"But there seems to be a lack of enthusiasm," he said. "We can't seem to get the ball rolling."

Curry emphasized that the hospital fund drive should be "a community effort" because it is the community which will benefit most from it.

Meanwhile, in a speech before the Pacifica Chambter of Commerce last week, George Hill, campaign director of the Mary's Help Hospital fund drive, also touched on the rumor.

"One woman told me she understood that only Catholics would be admitted to the hospital. Well, of course that is entirely erroneous," he said.

"No patients will be turned away—regardless of the hour of day or anything else."

Curry reported that the committee was having difficulty finding office space to set up campaign headquarters at a "reasonable cost."

He said he is storing equipment in the back of his warehouse at 7335 Mission street.

He said if anyone knows of an available office, the campaigners could have either free of rent or for a nominal cost, he should contact the chamber.

The board received the resignation of L. L. Nofziger who will be moving to take a new position in Oakland.

Tickets for Pageant Are Now on Sale

Tickets for the annual Miss Daly City pageant June 5 went on sale today. The colorful event is sponsored by the Daly City Chamber of Commerce.

The pageant will be held at the new South San Francisco Elks club building on Hillside boulevard.

Applications for entrants are now available at the chamber's office.

Candidates must be from 16 to 25 years old, a resident of Daly City for at least six months, single and never married before.

Contest preliminaries will be held Friday, May 24. The final judging is expected to be attended by the largest crowd in the pageant's history. Fred Martin is chairman of the program.

Here's Place For That Junk

Here's a chance to get rid of all that old junk in the basement or out in the garage at no cost.

Beginning Monday and continuing through Sunday, April 28, you'll be able to deposit 1—FREE—all your rubbish at the dumps of the Daly City Scavanger company at the Mussell rock dumpsite on the Old Coast highway.

Hours each day will be from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The free dumping program is being conducted in conjunction with the annual spring clean-up campaign of the Daly City fire department.

Complete results of school board elections in the North County, as well as all county-wide school election results, will be published in today's editions of The San Mateo Times—on sale at newsstands and at the office of The Post at 30 Park Plaza drive, Daly City.

In next Wednesday's edition of The Post, a roundup of all election results will be published.

Streets Bad In Pacifica, Official Says

Streets in Pacifica's older sections are in deplorable shape, they are patches on patches and their maintenance is eating up a major share of the city's street budget, city engineer Al Roberts revealed at city council meeting last week.

Property owners along Pacifica's unimproved streets are receiving benefits far out of proportion to the taxes they pay, Roberts stated.

Their streets are a constant hazard and inconvenience and take a disproportionate share of the state gas tax money available for maintenance of city streets, he added.

Pacifica uses 40 per cent of its gas tax funds for street maintenance and 60 per cent for construction of new city streets.

Roberts spoke in answer to a question from a Pedro Point resident, Mrs. Katherine Bouly of 368 San Pedro avenue, who regularly appears at council meetings to complain about the condition of her street.

Pacifica's old city streets, built by the county long before the city's incorporation, were of poor quality to begin with and cannot last forever, Roberts told Mrs. Bouly.

New Mayor to Serve 2nd Term

zens to serve the city.

The report said an investigation showed no necessary conflict of interest in appointive officers seeking elective jobs.

A special census completed a few days ago by the stated few days ago by the state department of finance disclosed that the city has grown more than 2000 persons in population during the last year.

The new population is 25,200, compared to last year's population of 22,995. It was pointed out that the new figure will mean $1400 in increased gas taxes and $16,000 in lieu taxes from the state for the remainder of this year alone.

A number of new commission members were introduced last week. They include Louis Lorenz, a leader in the Westview Improvement club, who will replace Mrs. Margaret Barrett on the planning commission; Stanley Farver, drug store owner, and Mrs. Jean Fredricks, wife of an Episcopal minister, who will replace Mrs. Peggy Drake and Arnold Turner on the welfare referral board; Mrs. Edee Bly, who will replace William Mayerhoff on the community safety committee, and Thomas Tromberg, who replaces Ralph Barkey on the park, beach and recreation commission.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Civil War Photo Exhibit Planned

One of the most complete collections of Civil War photography ever shown will be displayed at Colma Intermediate school during Public Schools week next week.

The exhibit, entitled "Photography and the Civil War," was obtained from the Ansco Film company, which produced the exhibit. It contains over 100 prints depicting the Civil War, many of which were taken by the famed photojournalist, Matthrew Brady.

Matthew Brady was not the only Civil War photographer, but he obtained the most prominence.

Though Brady could certainly not have been responsible for all the photos that are attributed to him, he was largely responsible for the picture history of the Civil War as it is known today.

Many of the pictures taken by other war photographers eventually found their way into the Brady collection of war negatives.

He had made it his duty to attempt to make a pictorial recording of the happenings of this war.

The entire collection, including those taken by Brady, numbers over 7,000 photographs. All are considered masterpieces of photojournalism that has only recently been equalled.

Though the majority of the pictures depict war scenes, there are a series of rare and historic portrait studies, which include the great men of that time.

Among these are pictures of Lincoln as well as portrait photos of Generals Lee, Grant, Sherman and George Armstrong Custer, the famed Indian fighter of that day.

Also included in the collection are scenes depicting the outer trenches at Fort Gregg; a burial truce at Fredericksburg and a picture showing Richmond in ruins.

The exhibit will be open to the public. It will remain at the Colma school until the second week in May.

During this time, other students in schools in the area will have an opportunity to see the exhibit.

Schools Week To Be Observed

Next week has been proclaimed Public Schools Week in Daly City by Mayor Joseph Verducci.

Verducci urged residents to "acquaint themselves first hand with the facts about their school so that they may justly evaluate their achievements, wisely provide for their needs and do their part in strengthening understanding and appreciation of the high standards" of public education.

Feyge Will Be Glad to Get Called

they disrupt the conducting of normal city business at council meetings, says Feyge, who recently fought successfully to have "oral communications" placed near the end of each council agenda.

Mayor Feyge is happy with a recent decision of the city council to cut its study sessions and meet semi-monthly instead of weekly. Being mayor is still nearly a full-time job in Pacifica, he thinks.

The new mayor believes that Pacifica's major accomplishment in the next future will be the up-dating of its highway routes — construction of the coastal freeway from Edgemar south to Rockaway — a four-lane highway south to Pedro Point and cross-county laterals.

Feyge thinks Route 229 will soon become a reality despite San Bruno's continuing protests.

If approved in June, the city-county road bond issue will give Pacifica its first northern lateral: Hickey boulevard from Monterey road in Edgemar through Fairmont subdivision to Hillside and South San Francisco.

BUDGET TIME is coming up soon for the Pacifica City Council and what Feyge especially hopes to see accomplished is the hiring of a finance officer for the city who will do all the purchasing and act as watchdog over all city spending.

The new mayor says he intends to put special effort into working for the formation of assessment districts to rebuild Pacifica's unimproved streets.

He also wants to see street lighting improved and says a survey is now underway by the Pacific Gas and Electric company in co-operation with the city's engineering department.

Other major city projects for which he has high hopes include citizens' studies of the city drainage needs and of a proposed all-city community center.

He is even optimistic that Pacifica's beach lands will someday be acquired by the city for public use, by lease arrangement with the state, when the southern increment of the coastal freeway is built.

Board Awaits A Signed Copy doesn't wait until it receives a written statement from somebody before it investigates a wrong doing.

Chairman of the board Thomas Noonan said last week the board would not be "forced into hasty or capricious action" over the charges.

In other action the board was notified that June 13 was the hearing date set in Superior Court on the proposed extension of White street.

The street extension would cut through Garden Village school in Broadmoor and connect with Park Plaza boulevard. The district is objecting to the move.

The court hearing would decide whether school use or road use has priority, superintendent of schools Richard Foster explained.

make a study of establishing a commission for Pacifica.

Last week, the council announced seven citizens have been selected to serve on such a study committee. They are Mrs. Mina McGee, Gilbert West, Adi Bana, Lawrence Willey, Kenneth Strom, James Foley and Glenn Butler.

Martin told Republicans that Pacificans demonstrated a real desire for a police and fire commission during the last city council election when they elected by a landslide vote a councilman (Harland Minshew) who included such a commission as part of his campaign platform.

Martin claims the commission would greatly improve morale within the two departments. He nevertheless says that he has no quarrel with the way departments are presently being run.

In fact, he states, Pacifica is proud of its police and fire services and the chiefs are doing an excellent job.

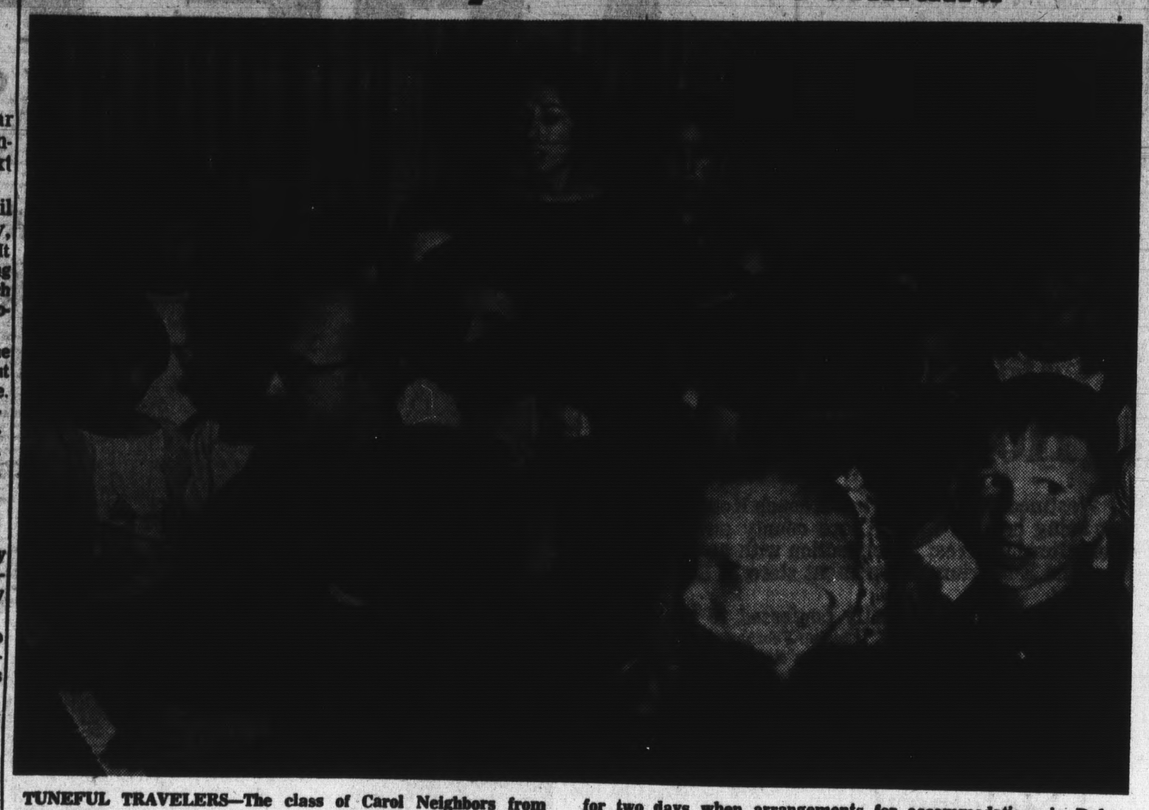
North County Hosts the Southland



TUNEFUL TRAVELERS—The class of Carol Neighbors from the William Orr Elementary school in Norwalk, California, strike up a tune while waiting for dinner at the Lincoln park clubhouse last week. City Helps Out A Class Tour

Thirty-five fourth grade students from Southern California went to school in San Francisco last week, thanks to the Daly City Department of Recreation.

The class of Carol Neighbors from the William Orr Elementary school in Norwalk was sheltered in the Lincoln park clubhouse for two days when housing arrangements for the group fell through.

A cousin of Miss Neighbors was to have made the arrangements for the group. The teacher chartered a bus, talked to parents, drafted a helper, Winston Dodge, a Covina teacher, and organized the trip to the Bay Area.

Then, just as the group was ready to leave, all contact with her cousin disappeared.

"My cousin apparently was called out of town suddenly," she said. "I haven't been able to contact him at all."

The teacher had promised the class in November that if they were good throughout the year and did their lessons well, she would take them on a trip, at her expense.

"I couldn't let them down," she said.

Miss Neighbors, a San Francisco State college graduate, had worked for the North County YWCA at its office in the Westlake Shopping center while she attended school.

"I called them and they referred me to Charles Vincent of the Recreation department," she said. "I thought we might be able to stay at the War Memorial Community center until we got settled."

Vincent arranged to have them quartered at the Lincoln park clubhouse, which permitted them to use the club kitchen for meals.

The children brought sleeping bags and camped on the floor Monday and Tuesday night.

Three student teachers from San Francisco State college offered to help in supervising the children during the visit.

"We picked San Francisco to see because we are studying California history and this is the seat of so much activity," Miss Neighbors said.

The class came by bus through the San Joaquin valley and returned south by way of the coast route.

"The children just couldn't believe the valley was so big," she said. "They were just thrilled."

While in San Francisco, the class took a harbor cruise and then hiked to the Maritime museum. A cable car ride and visits to Coit Tower and Chinatown all were included in the short visit.

On the return trip the teacher planned a stop in Monterey.

The field trip is almost like going to school throughout the Easter vacation, she said.

Which would make San Francisco, 450 miles from Norwalk, quite a long way to go to school.

"Now in future studies," she concluded, "the children will be able to associate what they are learning with what they have seen."

Letters

TO THE EDITOR:

We are writing this letter in regard to an article which appeared in The Post March 20. The article concerned an ill Westlake housewife who attempted suicide.

We can see no concrete purpose for its appearance on the front page after having so much unnecessary notoriety the previous week. It seems to us that any paper worth reading could find more constructive information than once again bringing up a sad incident beneficial to no one.

Mrs. Dorothy Johnson and
Marie Johnson
598 North Mayfair drive
Daly City

Editor's Note,

The article to which Mrs. Johnson refers appeared under the heading, "Housewife Saved From Bridge Leap." The nature of the housewife's rescue was, in our opinion, dramatic and thus of more than usual interest to our readers.

TO THE EDITOR:

I want to take this opportunity to say thank you. I have appreciated the wonderful co-operation and help this past year in the publicity you have given to us.

I certainly hope that our next group of officers will receive the same marvelous publicity which has helped to make our affairs such a big success.

AUTO DAMAGED

Mary L. Jackson, 30 Cliffside drive, reported to Daly City police over the weekend that vandals had damaged her auto, parked in front of her home.

Direct Dialing Due for Pacifica

Pacificans soon will be able to dial telephone calls to points throughout the United States and Canada without the assistance of an operator.

After Sunday, May 5, Pacifica residents will dial telephone numbers within the Bay Area directly. At present, Pacificans dial 112 for calls to South San Francisco, Daly City and parts of San Francisco and 211 or operator for all other calls outside the city.

Telephone calls outside the Bay Area will be made by using the area code for the place being called. There will be no change in rates for phone calls.

The service improvement has been made possible by construction of a $2,070,000 Pacific Telephone headquarters (pictured above) on Reina Del Mar, just east of the Coast Highway in the Vallemar section of Pacifica.

The new building, which will include all the complex new dial equipment, will serve all Pacifica. It will replace two buildings on Carmel avenue and Peralta in Linda Mar and two mobile units in Sharp Park and Linda Mar.

The exterior of the new building has been completed and interior installations are due to be completed May 5.

Henry Kowal, area manager for Pacific Telephone, says that after the new building and equipment is in service, an open house and tours will be arranged for the public.

The building and equipment has been constructed for Pacific Telephone by Western Electric company.

War on Bad Checks

Bad check passers, take note!

The North County is taking steps to thwart your activities in a way not tried before.

Just how it's all going to be done was outlined in a talk Thursday to the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce by Inspector Al Tevaldi of the Pacifica Police department.

Tevaldi described plans for a check warning system that will depend primarily upon close liaison between merchants and police.

He said Daly City is working on a similar program and that officials in South San Francisco also are considering such a move.

The anti-bad check alert will work something like this:

When police believe a check passer may be in or headed toward the community, two or three "key" merchants will be notified.

These merchants, in turn, will phone other merchants who in turn will pass the word onto more businessmen.

"It works something like a pyramid club until everybody has been alerted," Tevaldi explained.

The inspector said his department will set up a card index, listing all known bad check passers in the area.

In addition, police will list suspects described on the statewide police teletype system who may head toward this area.

Tevaldi emphasized that the system "also has to work in reverse."

That is, when merchants become suspicious of a check, they should notify the police department so that the check warning system can be brought into operation.

IT WAS SAID, during World War II when the DiMaggios and Williams and Musials and other lesser, though nonetheless proficient players were in the service, that all one needed to play major league ball was two arms and two legs—not especially good ones.

But there was one individual, Pete Gray, who contradicted even that hackneyed expression. For Gray, you see, made the majors with two good legs and on an extraordinary arm—a left one.

Pete Gray played half the 1945 season for the old St. Louis Browns despite the fact that he was the only one-armed professional baseball player in the history of the game.

Gray's appearance in the lineup was no publicity stunt by the usually inept and unloved Brownies. They had won their only pennant the year before and were in no mood for playing around. Gray had had a fine minor league record—topped off by a huge season at Memphis where he had hit and fielded well and had stolen 68 bases.

Except for the arm handicap, Gray was a whole ballplayer who could run, field and throw. Defensively, his missing arm was about as inconsequential to his ability as such a handicap could be. He used a specially constructed glove, which he could flip off his hand in a split second.

Upon catching a ball, he would toss the ball a few inches in the air, flip the glove, catch his own thrown ball on the fly and throw in seemingly one motion. Reports were that he had a strong, accurate arm and could get rid of the ball about as well as many major league outfielders.

Gray's greatest failing was the failing of most major league rookies. He couldn't hit big league pitching. His slap singles and drag bunts—and even, surprisingly, his occasional long balls—just weren't forthcoming, even against the watered-down pitching of that era.

After managing to hit only .218 in 77 games, Pete was farmed out to Toledo, and was never heard of again—as is the case of so many rookies who are farmed to Toledo.

THE CRUX of Gray's being mentioned in these columns lies in the fact that I could never understand why he was allowed to sink into such oblivion that even Lee Allen, Hall of Fame historian, has been unable to locate him.

True, Gray couldn't make the majors but then a lot of ball players have never made the majors with the advantage of a full set of limbs.

Gray could have been a wonderful inspiration to disabled vets after the war and even now could probably shame many husky athletes (such as strong young pitchers who imagine sore arms) into giving it more of the old college try.

If there is ever a special niche established in the Hall of Fame for ball players who had greater hearts than statistics, then Pete Gray would be my first nomination.

I HOPE that by now there's no doubt about the Giants winning the pennant by 10 games.

I'm not hopping on the bandwagon after my 1962 criticism of Horace's boys. I was "on" them only because I felt they should never have had to cut it so thin that they'd need a miracle comeback to force a playoff series.

I said then that they should have won by 10 games and I'm saying it for 1963, as well. Especially since Alvin Dark is now an experienced manager and the players realize what they're capable of.

I'd liken the Giants to Lenny of Mice and Men fame who suddenly realized that he was powerful enough to branch out from kitten to human necks.

Those who believe the Dodgers have a chance are thinking wishfully, I believe the saying goes. Los Angeles boosters are predicting a pennant based on an infield comprised of a chronically sore-backed, 32-year-old Yankee retread (Bill Skowron); a 30-year-old shortstop (Maury Wills) whose salary is based on the productivity of his legs and whose legs have shown a recent tendency toward tenderness; a pair of rookie infielders (third baseman Ken McMullin and second baseman Nate Oliver); several strong-armed but untried first and second year hurlers to back up three starting pitchers, one of whom (Johnny Podres) is usually out six weeks of the season with a bad back, and another (Sandy Koufax), whose poorly circulating finger has not been fully tested.

Sure, there's Don Drysdale and a few good replacements. But Jim Gilliam, who could solve any third or second base problems should it come to that, has not yet, despite the fact that he is probably baseball's best utility man, figured out how to play more than one position at a time.

Tommy Davis could always be moved to third, but then his defensive work would nullify about 25 of his RBIs. The great relief pitchers, Norm Sherry, Ed Roebuck and Ron Perranoski could, I suppose, always be made into starters, but then both the starting and relief corps would be admittedly weakened.

Sure, there's still Don Drysdale, but even big Don could never win 25 again with an infield imitating a colander.

IN 1958, the Giants had one of the greatest rookie aggregations ever assembled (Cepeda, Alou, Davenport, Kirkland, etc.) and could still finish only third.

A pennant is won on what is—not on what may be.

As of now, only Cincinnati, with good power and one of the best pitching staffs in baseball, stands a chance against the Giants in their league, and, of course, only the Yankees, who win on habit as much as talent, in the other league.

Alvin Dark's salary next year should be based not on whether he wins, but on by how much he wins.

They'll Man the Infield

Lettermen Give Rams Hope

In NPAL Title Chase

By RON BATES

AS FAR AS Westmoor High school baseball coach Rod Losberger is concerned, the opening of the North Peninsula league race Friday "couldn't be timed better." He explained:

"The team is just hitting its peak right now and we are beginning to jell."

For Losberger, this may be the year to repeat his title wins of 1960 and 1961 when his teams compiled 20-8 and 21-7 records in the old Peninsula league and he garnered coach of the year honors.

Losberger has seven letterman returning from last year's varsity from which to build this contender. Included among the veterans is all-county third-baseman Bruce Hix who as a sophomore amazed observers by hitting an astronomical .471.

Also returning will be shortstop Al Contreras, outfielders Steve Schmuck and Harry Johnson, catcher Nick Knrich, outfielder-turned-pitcher Tito Flores and pitcher Dave Williams.

Even with seven returnees, the Rams still have a young team. Schmuck and first baseman Bill Caster are the only seniors on the starting line.

THE MOUND STAFF is composed of Hix, who will see double-duty at third base, Torres, Williams and Gary Davis. Tony Frisch will be used as a spot pitcher.

The four starters also will be used in relief, depending on when they are due to pitch again, the coach said. A good part of the relief load will fall on Hix and Davis, who Losberger says have "exceptional control."

Hix will be carrying another load in the hitting department, but Losberger expects some help there from Schmuck, left-fielder Ed Perry and second-baseman Dan Payette.

Hix hasn't got into his .400 swing but has been hovering around .300. In a 8-4 losing effort against Sacred Heart High school in the South San Francisco Easter tournament, Hix blasted a three-run homer and a single to score all the Ram runs.

Then in another tournament game that went 14 innings he doubled home two runs to give the Rams a 2-2 tie against Saint Ignatius.

IN THE OUTFIELD, the Rams have what Losberger calls "the best since I have been coaching at Westmoor." Chasing flies in the pasture are Schmuck, Perry, Steve Stoa and Arnie Ertola.

Losberger has special praise for senior Schmuck. "He really covers the ground."

The Rams have a young club in the infield but they are beginning to look good, he said.

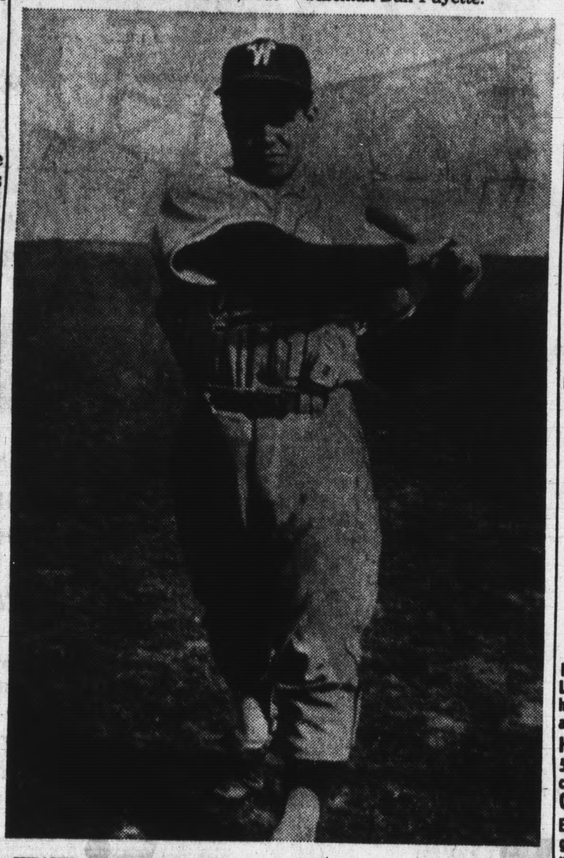
"Payette, at shortstop, is the key. "He is developing well after a slow start."

Payette has been alternating with transfer student Bill Nacea. When Hix moves to the pitching slot, Nacea replaces him at third.

Nacea also has been helping with his hitting, the coach said.

"The most improved player on the team is Al Contrares. He never boots the ball on defense and is starting to hit the ball. He is only 5-6 and walks quite a bit now because he has stopped swinging at bad pitches."

Losberger figures the NPL race to be a four-way battle between South San Francisco, El Camino, Jefferson and his own Rams.



HEAVY HITTER—Westmoor coach Rod Losberger will count heavily on the bat and arm of veteran Bruce Hix. An All-County third baseman after hitting .471 last year as a sophomore, Hix is developing into a pitching star for the Rams. (Post-Times photo)

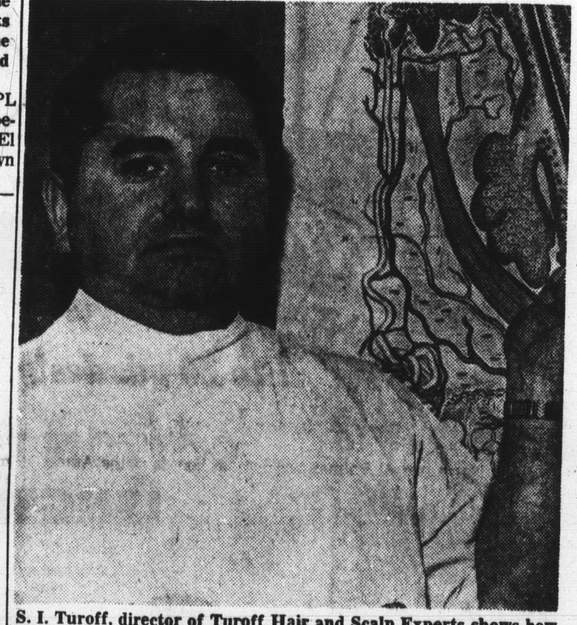
California's Leading Hair Expert Demonstrates Baldness Problems Next 8 Days



S. I. Turoff, director of Turoff Hair and Scalp Experts shows how baldness can be caused by excessive hair fall and dandruff. This famous specialist is offering a free examination and $2.00 demonstration treatment for the next 8 days. Hours: Daily 11 a.m.-8 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Thursday 4 p.m.-8 p.m.

Basic Principle of Baldness and Prevention Explained by Expert

Remarkable new methods to prevent baldness and thicken hair will be demonstrated in the next 8 days in an unusual manner.

Noted Expert Speaks

"Probably the greatest single cause of baldness is simply neglect." So says S. I. Turoff, dynamic young director of the Turoff Hair and Scalp Experts. This specialist is well qualified on this subject, being the founder of the large Turoff organization. Over 1 million treatments for scalp problems have been given to thousands of satisfied clients.

Turoff continued, "excessive dandruff, falling hair, itchiness, over dry or oily scalp, thinning or bald spots, these are all danger signals from nature. You might think that with such warnings of approaching baldness, an intelligent person would act fast to prevent it. Unfortunately, this is not always so."

Wrong Belief on Baldness

Turoff reflected, "there are so many outdated thoughts and beliefs on the hair, it is easy to put yourself in a frame of mind where nothing is done, and one mistaken belief is that baldness is "natural," and due to age. This is nonsense. Science has proven hair grows fastest from 35 to 60 years of age. Another belief is that baldness is inherited. If this were true, why would a person have hair, for say, 30 years. We can inherit the tendency, not baldness itself."

Turoff continued, "however, the most foolish belief of all is that nothing can be done. The Turoff Hair and Scalp people have become California's leading organization in this field because we have proven that thought wrong — to thousands of happy clients. Our records show we can help 95% of the people we examine, we do not accept those that are hopeless, because of systemic complications, or those that are slick bald. We are concerned with one thing — the amount of hair you still have, and this includes fuzz. If a hair root is still there, that hair can be improved. You get thicker hair because of one fact — a healthy scalp grows hair, where roots are still alive. This fact can not be disputed! Turoff examination is free, the treatment is pleasant and relaxing. Our hours are very convenient for working people. Worried about cost? Let's just say — the bulk of our business is from average working people. They all agree our rates are reasonable, and this small fee is a fine investment indeed for a head of hair instead of baldness.

Offers $2.00 Trial Treatment Next 8 Days

For skeptics, we are making a very special offer. Come to your nearest Turoff office in the next 8 days. If the free examination shows we can help you, your first Turoff treatment will cost you just $2.00 (no obligation.) This experience will surprise and delight you. It may change all your ideas about letting yourself go bald. Spend that $2.00 and let us prove this to you. Hurry in soon.

Serra Bowl

Betty Fontana set the lanes ablaze last week in the Thursday morning ladies' Domestic Engineers league to take top spot in Serra news. Bowling games of 255, 146, and 246 for a towering 647 series, Betty led her Fontana and Son team to a three-game sweep over Team 9.

With only one week of league play remaining, the big win on team games of 654, 618, and 628 (for a 1900 total) shut out the Nick's B & N Nursry girls by at least a half game. With first placed clinched in this league, Nick's is assured of second spot by at least a half game over the Rem gals with the next seven teams separated by the slim margin of only 2½ wins!

Lee Stevens led the Pots & Pans loop on a fine 213—615 tally as his Wheels team rolled over the S.O.S. five for a 2 to 1 victory. Rex Golobic led the losers with a healthy 213—608 threesome.

In last week's Metro Masters action, the Serra Bowl team swept three games from the faltering Murray Amusement squad. Ernie Cool posted a classy 219—591 series for the Serra boys while Rich Corson's 542 was the best effort for Murray's.

Cliff Owens, bowling in the Automotive league, burned up the lanes for the Spenser Buick team last week as he pounded out a 236—604 series and led his squad in a 2-1 win over Harris Brothers.

Westlake Bowl

PINS WERE flying like Jets last Tuesday night as Dave Egigian led the Petersen Point Singles with a tremendous 707 series. Carrying a 178 current average, Dave put together games of 232-275-200 to set a new record in the league.

Big Don Antonioli made the major league last week as he led the Westlake Minors with a big 253 game and 627 series.

First prize of $150 went to Tim Dunn in the first Weekend Gold Coast Sweeper as he led the field of sixteen bowlers averaging over the 200 mark for the six game match. This Friday night feature will continue at 11:30 p.m. weekly until May 31. Limited to sixteen bowlers with averages of 180 and over, it has caught the interest of the high average bowlers of the area.

Donna Ravetti won dual honors last Tuesday morning as she led the league with a high game of 185 and then was elected president of the league for the coming season. Other officers elected are: Bette Levesque, vice president; Pat Garcia, secretary; Iris Nolli, treasurer and Angie Cestone, sergeant-at-arms.

Herb Cuevas and Maxine Chaika were the high rollers in the Southgate Mixed Fives with 205-596 and 179-463, respectively.

The Junior Easter Tournament continues to bring the better junior bowlers of the state to the Bay Area. Last Monday and Tuesday, the team from Dutch Village Bowl in Los Angeles visited Westlake and made a lasting impression on the standings list.

Mary Connish proved that a slow start need not keep a bowler from shooting a high series. She started in the Keglerettes league with a 134 game, then came back with games of 201 and 208 for a big 543 series.

FOUR MORE bowlers qualified for the Westlake Rolloff in the current Gold Coast classic as Larry Charon, Henry Dosdorian, Art Krause and Rich Hottal took the top spots in their classes in the weekly rolloff. Eldon Henshaw and Ken Waite led their divisions to win paid entries in the Westlake Rolloffs. This handicap tournament, which runs until June 2, promises to have a total prize fund approaching $50,000 at the current rate bowlers are participating.

Hillie Narin and Al Palmer tied for top honors in the American Masters 900 Scratch league on a 620 total with Al taking high game honors 247 to 234.

This is "Welcome Navy" week as almost 200 bowlers from the Twelfth Naval District will be on hand today, tomorrow and Friday afternoons, competing for spots in the Western Regionals at San Diego and All Navy in Little Creek, Va.

Mildred Garrett and Sharon Sylvester took first place in the Monday afternoon Ladies Handicap Doubles with 1203, followed by Peg Brown and Martha Lauer with 1182. In third place was Jean Lunghi and Nada Sylvester with 1169.

Sea Bowl

THIS PAST weekend has seen some of the highest scoring ever in Sea Bowl. The scores were all during the handicap tournament for the men's division of the Pacifica championships and will be listed completely in this column next week. The Junior league trio will meet Saturday to form their summer league.

Our Adult-Junior league will meet April 27 at 11 a.m. We're taking a large group of bowlers to Nevada during May and anyone interested should call Bob West at the bowl.

Moonlite Scotch doubles winners this week were John Lew and Jane Carver with a nice 608. They were closely followed by Dick Smith and Patricia Nurney.

NOW FOR a review of last week's bowling: Mermaids: Eleanor Payne 154—444, Nancy Bodegraving 152—440 and Retta McCurdy 148—414. NPL FAVORITES

Tourney Wins Tab S.S.F. Top Threat

If pre-season wins are an indication of things to come, South San Francisco should do all right in the North Peninsula league baseball race, which opens Friday.

The Warriors established themselves as pre-season favorites by taking two wins against one loss in the Ninth Annual South San Francisco Easter tournament last week.

Three NPL teams played in the tournament, which saw San Francisco baseball power, St. Ignatius, fail to gain a win.

The Wildcats, who were picked to win the tournament, suffered a 5-2 defeat at the hands of the Warriors and were held to a 2-2 tie with Westmoor in 14 innings.

Vallejo downed Balboa, 4-3, Saturday behind the one-hit pitching of Gary Enserti to win the tournament crown.

The Westmoor Rams had a tourney record of 1-1-1 while the El Camino Colts won one and lost two.

The lone defeat of the Warriors came in the first round when cross-town rival El Camino nudged them 7-6 on homers by Walt Harris, Brian Cute and Dennis Davis. Warrior Jeff Jones also banged one over the fence.

The winning run scored when Colt Mark Avelar singled, stole second and third and then came home on a wild pitch.

The Warriors bounced back in the second round with an 11-3 romp over San Mateo and the surprising win against St. Ignatius, 5-2.

In the tough game against the Wildcats, both teams played nearly flawless ball. The Warriors parlayed home runs by Gary Iacini and Gary Montalvo and two key double plays into victory.

Westmoor dropped the opening contest against Sacred Heart 8-4, and then tangled with the Wildcats for a 2-2 tie in the second contest.

Third baseman Bruce Hix brought home all the Ram runs in the two contests. Against Sacred Heart, he hit a homer with two aboard and then singled home the fourth run. In the St. Ignatius battle, he doubled home both runs in the first inning.

The Rams showed no mercy in a 16-0 debacle over San Mateo in seven innings. Westmoor pitchers Dave Williams, Tito Torres and Tony Frisch held the Bearcats scoreless while the Ram bats ran wild. Westmoor scored 9 runs in the fourth inning.

After winning against S.S.F. in the opener by one run, the El Camino Colts lost by the same margin to Balboa and Sacred Heart in their following two encounters.

Balboa, which took second in the tournament, downed El Camino 3-2, as 11 Colts struck out. In the other contest, Sacred Heart scored in the ninth to register a 2-1 win.

Morris Hits Grand Slam For Bulldogs

College of San Mateo's baseball team hopes to make it 10 wins in eleven outings today when the Bulldogs take on the Stanford junior varsity in a practice game at the Sunken diamond in Palo Alto.

The Bulldogs, who meet City College of San Francisco in a Golden Gate conference doubleheader Saturday, whipped Hancock college, 10-5, Saturday for their ninth win in 10 games.

The victory, featuring a grand slam home run by John Morris in the six-run eighth inning and back to back homers by John De Vos and Rich Reitz in the first inning, gave the Bulldogs a 15-8 season record.

Morris' slam came off relief pitcher Mickey Davis, after the Bulldogs had scored two runs on a single by DeVos and a double by Reitz, which went for four bases on errors.

The rally broke the 4-4 tie which San Mateo managed with a two-run rally in the seventh inning on a lone base hit by Mickey Corso, a hit batter, a stolen base and an error.

Julianel hurled the last three innings for San Mateo, allowing one run. Hancock's tally in the third came on a home run by Jim Azevedo and doubles by Azevedo and Bill Kelley accounted for two in the fifth.

CSM's Benson Threatens a National Mark

By FRED BAER

College of San Mateo half miler Ron Benson was a legitimate candidate for a national junior college record today in the wake of a stunning performance in the Golden Gate conference relays over the weekend.

Benson a CSM sophomore from Detroit, ran 880-yard relay legs of 1:50.8 and 1:51.9 only a half hour apart on the winning San Mateo distance and sprint medley teams and finished the day's action with a 47.8 anchor $40 stint in the Bulldog mile quartet.

The Bulldogs placed in every relay but the 440, winning four events, to roll up 67 points. Oakland City college gained runner-up honors with 60 points while last year's Coast conference champion, Foothill, was third with 57.

Sugar 'n' Spice

By Nell Norton

IF YOU had ham for Easter, you are probably wondering what you can do with that medium-small amount you have left over. The recipe we are using today combines that last bit of goodness with peas and a flavorful sauce and serves it over hot corn bread.

Mrs. Audre Flaherty of 31 Wawona street, San Francisco gave me this recipe and it's been a favorite ham-finisher for me.

HAM AND CORN BREAD

2 cups diced ham (or as much as you can gather together)
1 pkg. frozen peas, cooked
corn bread

WHITE SAUCE

4 Tbsp. butter
4 Tbsp. flour
2 cups milk
½ teas., Worcestershire sauce (more, if your taste dictates)

Melt butter, blend in flour until smooth. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly until boiling point is reached. Reduce heat and cook for three minutes longer; add worcestershire sauce and blend. Then add the ham and cooked peas and place over double boiler to keep hot until ready to serve.

CORN BREAD

¾ cup flour
4 teas. baking powder
2 Tbsp. sugar
1½ cups cornmeal
1 teas. salt
1 egg, beaten
1¼ cups milk
4 Tbsp. melted shortening

Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Add cornmeal, beaten egg and milk to make a stiff batter. Add melted shortening; beat until well mixed. Pour into greased eight-inch square pan. Bake in hot oven at 425 degrees about 25 minutes. To serve, cut into squares. Makes nine squares.

REV. RICHARD BAIRD
To Preach Here

As an introduction to their annual school of missions series, members and friends of Broadmoor Presbyterian church will hear the Reverend Richard Hamilton Baird at worship services at 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Sunday.

Aside from assisting with the travel through West Coast ports of missionaries, church visitors, scholarship nationals, and international students, Baird's work consists of aiding churches, as well as Ecumenical Mission and Relations committees of synods and presbyteries in the western states.

The pastor and his wife went to Korea in 1923, serving as missionaries until 1941. From there he went to Colombia in 1942. The Rev. Mr. Baird has also served mission fields in Mexico, Guatemala and Venezuela.

The annual school of missions programs at Broadmoor acquaints parishioners of overseas efforts made through the church in worldwide work.

The special emphasis this year and the highlight of Dr. Baird's Sunday address will be: "Our Church on the Rim of East Asia."

The school will meet at 6 p.m. Sunday and on four succeeding Sundays at the same time. Lt. Cmdr. William Filkins is chairman of the mission programs.

Deaths of 2 S.S.F. Boys Are Probed

Coroner's inquests have been scheduled for Tuesday to determine the cause of deaths of two infant sons of a South San Francisco couple. The boys died of head injuries 10 months apart.

The children were Mark and Stefan Calabretta, sons of Mario and Joyce Calabretta of 36 Clara avenue. Mark, who was 1 year old, died May 14, 1961 in Mary's Help hospital in San Francisco. Stefan, 1 month old, died November 8, 1962. He was dead on arrival at Kaiser hospital in South San Francisco.

Coroner Paul B. Jensen said autopsies showed that both children died of brain injuries. Mark had a bruise on his chin but the other child had no external evidence of injury.

Jensen said after the death of the first child, a thorough investigation was made by the South San Francisco police department and the district attorney's office. No one could explain how the child was injured. The mother, the coroner said, conjectured that the boy fell over a toy in his crib.

The father, Jensen reported, agreed to take a lie detector test, but the mother refused. The case was dropped at that time.

After the second child died, another investigation was undertaken and is continuing to this time. The mother, Jensen said, again refused to take a lie detector test.

The inquests will be held in room 200 of the County Health and Welfare building in San Mateo at 9:30 a.m. April 23.

Wrong Bank In Feature Story

The wrong bank was held up—for praise that is.

In a feature on the Daly City Recreation Commission, The Post erroneously said that commissioner Louis Larcombe worked for the Bank of America. He does not.

He works for the Bank of California, which has given him time, let him off on numerous occasions to attend to Recreation Commission business.

Control Tower Gets Approval

Congressman J. Arthur Younger has announced that approval of the federal aviation agency has been given to construct an airport traffic control tower and installation of electronic equipment at the San Mateo county airport which is located in Palo Alto.

Younger said that surveys and soil borings will get under way shortly under the direction of federal aviation agency engineers at the previously selected site at the airport.

A joint meeting of E. Robert Stallins, San Mateo county manager and FAA engineers will be held to determine a time schedule for construction.

Younger said actual construction will get under way some time this year.

Historical Document Shows Famous Warship

This week's addition to the American Historical Document collection is an antiqued parchment reproduction of the U.S.S. Bonhomme Richard. This famous ship, commanded by John Paul Jones was victor in a naval engagement with the British Ship Serapis off the English Coast September 23, 1779. This was the first decisive naval victory of the United States in the American revolution. Out of this battle came the famous words of Jones, "I have not yet begun to fight!"

The present-day U.S.S. Bonhomme Richard is a 45,000-ton attack aircraft carrier in the U. S. Pacific Fleet. She is affectionately known throughout the fleet as "Bonnie Dick."

This document, along with ten others, is being made available by The Post as a public service, at 25 cents each. Other available documents include: The Declaration of Independence, Bill of Rights, Gettysburg Address, Portraits of the Presidents, The Constitution, Star Spangled Banner, Prayers of Peter Marshall, History of the Flag, Battlefields of the Revolution, and Pilgrims Map of the World. Next week a new document will be added to complete the set of twelve.

Readers may obtain the Bonhomme Richard document by sending 25 cents to The Post, 30 Park Plaza drive, Daly City, or by calling at the office of The Post.

Pacific Parade

By DON MILLER

A SVELTE and very elegant lady slipped into San Francisco a week or so ago for altogether too short a visit.

She arrived after sunrise one morning and was gone before sunrise of the next. And unless you were expecting her, you probably would have missed her—even though she stands nearly 20 stories tall and weighs in at a cool 38,000 pounds.

This lady with the cosmopolitan air and the look of tomorrow is the Rotterdam—the reigning monarch of the Holland-America Shipping line. Her owners stoutly claim that she's the most luxurious cruise ship afloat these days and after a tour of this huge vessel, you begin to wonder just how gracious life can get on the water.

The Rotterdam is the fifth generation of a storied family of Rotterdams that dates back to 1872 when Number One slid down the ways at a then-imposing 1700 tons.

The first was 253 feet long, less than the length of a football field. Today's descendant, if stood up on her stern, would tower the height of a 70-story apartment building.

The Rotterdam of the 1960s represents the most striking change in the family from a previous generation. The ship, in the manner of the British Oriana and Canberra, dispenses with the usual smokestack and instead carries two very tall and thin stovepipe affairs that straddle the ship aft.

Each is made of aluminum and weighs 22 tons. Their tops have rakish-looking flaps that project soot and smoke upward.

When viewed from dead aft, these stacks and the forest of wires and electronic equipment that make up the ship's mast give the Rotterdam the appearance of a catalytic cracking unit at a refinery. It's probably the most unglamorous view of a very glamorous lady.

THE S. S. ROTTERDAM

THE ROTTERDAM was in San Francisco on her second round-the-world cruise. She takes off on one of these jaunts once each year after steaming regally between New York and Holland on a half dozen or so round trips in the posh North Atlantic passenger trade.

We dropped down for a visit to this proud lady while she was moored at the Matson Line's Pier 35 to see if she lives up to her reviews as a luxury ship.

About the first impression you get as you step aboard is that the ship below decks resembles not a ship but an elegantly-appointed mansion with a large multitude of servants on hand.

A broad, carpeted stairway threads its way between the principal decks midships, linking so many decks you begin to think the Rotterdam is bottomless.

For the less ambulatory or for those who just get tired of climbing stairs, the Rotterdam is right on the ball with 18 elevators and four escalators.

There are elevators fore, elevators aft and elevators amidship. In fact, in the event of a power failure, chances are there would be more passengers stuck between decks than upon them.

WE STARTED climbing stairs and taking elevators to tour all 11 decks of the Rotterdam in a sort of stumble-around sans-guide fashion that turned up all manner of what to us were interesting features of this floating mansion.

Forward of midships, we walked into a theater so stylishly decorated that it would have put some of San Francisco's comfort-boasting art theaters to shame.

The Rotterdam's theater is a two-deck affair and with 607 seats is the largest of its kind on any ship. Or so the ship owners claim.

It has a rich-looking gold curtain that, when drawn aside, reveals a 35-foot screen equipped to show movies filmed in all the latest visions and scopes and A-Os around these days.

Movies are shown afternoons and evenings and we overheard one sun-tanned old gentleman remark to a visitor the Rotterdam's taste is above reproach—"there aren't any westerns."

IN ADDITION to the theater, we found topside an area of the ship that should tempt the nautical bent of any passenger.

It's the observation deck, boasting a flying bridge of sorts from which the amateur seaman can second guess the captain on his navigation and piloting.

Wisely enough, this bridge is just out of earshot of the real thing forward. We're not suggesting the captain would be in the least bit influenced by what he might hear from the second-guesser's bridge.

But since in business — and the Rotterdam, after all, is a business — the customer is supposed to always be right, it's only practical that in this circumstance that although right he can't be heard.

WE COULD go on about the Rotterdam — about her two swimming pools, her 36 air conditioning units, her 260 bathtubs and 300 showers, her seven bars and lounges (one for about every 200 passengers) and her plethora of clocks—so many, in fact it would be overtly fraudulent to strike up a conversation with someone by asking the time of day.

But we won't. Instead, we'll end with a half-hearted complaint.

In this rich setting of deep pile rugs, grand staircases, plush theater, escalators and flying bridges, the windows were dirty!

Now, c'mon gang. Let's do the whole thing up right. If we're going to have a luxury ship, let's have one with clean windows. After all, we can't have a monarch with a dirty face.

3 Pacifica Men Held in Theft Spree

Three young Pacifica men were arrested last week on two charges of burglary in Half Moon Bay Wednesday night. The arrests followed investigation into the burglaries of Blake's Coffee Shop and Jack's Mercantile store in Half Moon Bay in which liquor, cigarettes and cash were taken and resulted from combined efforts of the Half Moon Bay and Pacifica police departments.

A 16 year old boy was arrested in a Pacifica theater by Officer Paul Averiett of Pacifica and by Sgt. Fred Ceranski of Half Moon Bay. He previously has served time with the California Youth Authority.

Pacifica Officers Edward Ulrich and Ray Karcezwsky nabbed Richard Earle Witzel, 24, 716 Alta Vista, near his home and his 17-year old companion near Linda Mar boulevard. Witzel recently was released from the county jail after serving nine months for burglary.

Half Moon Bay Police Chief Don Pearman said that after the burglaries a bulletin was put out and Officer Averiett said he suspected the trio might have been responsible. Fingerprints were found at the scene of the crime and the 16-year-old was picked up. He supplied the names of his two companions. Liquor and cigarette loot was recovered. Police established that the three men were in Half Moon Bay Wednesday night.

District Approves New Plan

Brisbane school district is the first in the county to sign up for school building construction inspection services to be provided by the county.

An agreement signed by the governing boards of the district and the county provides for services on the construction of Panorama school in the Southern Hills subdivision.

The inspection arrangement, available to all school districts, was worked up 18 months ago by the county board, the county superintendent of school's office and some of the school districts.

The agreement with Brisbane calls for the payment of the full cost of inspection services to a maximum of $750 a month.

"The agreement with the county," said Henry Tarratt, county building director, "will relieve the school district of having to employ and supervise their own personnel. Also, the services will benefit the school district because of the fact that we have a more highly specialized division for services of this type and can undoubtedly render a more complete service that they could obtain otherwise."

Brisbane's decision to use the service was hailed by Al Glantz, co-ordinator of business advisory services in the county schools office.

Driver Learns That Squeak Wasn't Mouse

When Mrs. James Mitchel, 71 Pinehaven drive, Daly City, said good-bye to her husband at 5:45 a.m. one day recently, she thought she wouldn't see him until that evening.

A half-hour later he returned and he wasn't alone.

Mitchell had been waiting for a light at Ocean and San Jose avenues in San Francisco when he heard a squeak.

Because his home is near a field, he thought a mouse must have joined him for a ride. He pulled over prepared to do battle.

What he found, however, was a black and red Persian cat with four new-born kittens. The mother had apparently crawled into the car through an open window.

The Mitchells have a Siamese cat of their own and a two-year-old son. Both were promptly isolated from the new family.

TIRE SLASHED

Josephine H. Shull, 279 Palisades drive, reported to Daly City police over the weekend that someone had slashed a tire on her car.

Stanford Hannah Is Dead at 78

Stanford Hannah, 78, well-known Daly City and Burlingame civic leader, died last Tuesday night of an apparent heart attack at a University of California club meeting in San Francisco.

The former superintendent of the Jefferson Union High school district in Daly City collapsed before the meeting began.

He was an active member of several civic groups including Crocker Lodge No. 454, F. & A.M., Lions International, American Legion, Phi Delta Kappa Rotary International and the University of California club. He was a past president of the Daly City-Colma Lions club.

Hannah was born April 23, 1884, in Stanberry, Mo., and lived in Belvedere, Ill., from 1901 to 1911, in Montana, from 1911-26 and in California since 1926.

He received his bachelor of science degree from Montana State college in 1922 and his master's degree from the University of California in 1930.

Prior to becoming district superintendent of Jefferson in 1944, he had been a district superintendent of Taft Union High school and junior college from 1937 to 1944, principal of Gridley Union High school from 1930 to 1937, and principal of Mendocino Union High school from 1928 to 1930.

Since retirement from the Jefferson district post in 1956, he has lived in Burlingame.

Survivors include his wife Bernice; his son, George S. Hannah, M.D., of San Leandro; daughters, Mary Lou Morrow of Ukiah and Florence Murphy of Colma.

Funeral services were conducted by the W. C. Lasswell chapel.

Plant of the Week

PLANT OF THE WEEK is "Enchantment," a mid-century hybrid lily, originated by Jan De Graaff of Gresham, Ore. This lily is vying with the White Madonna Lily for Easter gifts.

Many Bulbs May be Planted in April

Bulb planting should not be limited to late fall as many of our most colorful summer flowers are produced from bulbs planted in spring. Many of these such as acidantheras, lilies, ranunculus and anemones prefer an April start but there are many more that can be tucked into the soil in April for an outstanding summer show.

Anemones and ranunculuses should be planted as soon as possible. The usual planting time for these very colorful flowers is late fall but one year the bulbs were overlooked until spring and rather than pitch them out we planted them among our camellias and rhododendrons where they would be cool and get plenty of moisture. They paid off with some surprisingly fine blooms. Soil for anemones and ranunculuses should be on the light side without manure. (Manure that has been worked into the soil the year before will not harm the bulbs but no fresh manure should be added when preparing the soil for these bulbs.

The secret of good blooms with these bulbs is plenty of moisture during the growing period. This need for moisture is the reason most California gardeners plant their anemones and ranunculuses in the late fall. Be sure to set the fangs or claws downwards and cover the crowns with a scant inch of sand or fine soil. As soon as the leaves appear we spread sand in and around the plants to prevent slug damage or use one of the new liquid slug solutions. We also cover the young plants with a wire mesh frame to protect them from birds.

Lilies will be coming into hundreds of homes this weekend and while lily bulbs should definitely be planted in the fall as soon as possible after they have been dug, these florist grown plants can be set out in the garden when the blooms wither. The one exception to fall planting of lily bulbs is the Madonna lily which matures for division and replanting in August. However, should some friend give you lily bulbs for Easter do not hesitate to plant them for you will be pretty sure to get one good blooming and you may be lucky enough to have the bulb develop enough basal roots to carry it into another year by which time it should be well rooted. The forced bulbs from the florists frequently produce a second good bloom the same year.

One of the brightest of the summer flowering bulbs that like to be planted in April are the Tigridias or "Mexican Shell-flower." The tigridia has three broad petals and three narrow ones that join to form the shell shape that gives them their popular name. These petals are very highly colored, the more common varieties being a flaming scarlet, but salmon, pink, yellow and even white may be had in the hybrid varieties. The flowers last only a day but they are produced in such rapid succession (each stem repeats flowering at three to four day intervals) this is scarcely noticeable.

HOME & GARDENS

Hybrid Lily First Grown By de Graaff

"Enchantment," a nasturtium-red mid-century hybrid lily being offered to the Easter trade by Ah Sam's, is the Plant of the Week. Enchantment is a Jan de Graaff patented lily that has been heaped with honors. To name a few: First Class Certificate, Royal Horticultural society; First Class Certificate, Massachusetts Horticultural society and the North American Lily society.

This lily is the most vigorous, prolific and healthy one that can be imagined. The stock stems from seed planted by de Graaff in the spring of 1942. It bore one flower in 1944 and a full sized group in 1945. It is an upright lily of excellent habit, with many well-formed flowers. Full of life and depth, the color blazes in the sun and, even on dark days, the glow of Enchantment can be seen for some distance.

Enchantment carries large numbers of bulbils in the axils of the leaves. It can also be propagated quite readily from scales and de Graaff has found that its vivid coloring is so dominant a factor that it is transmitted to nearly all its seedlings. In addition to being one of the best of garden lilies it is also an ideal pot-plant and a good forcing variety.

Olives Are Difficult To Harvest

Because of their small size, olives may be one of the most difficult of all fruits to shake off the tree mechanically, but University of California agricultural engineers are planning to try it with a special shaker.

After several years of inconclusive trials with machines adapted from other crops and two years of intensive laboratory research, the engineers will start field trials with their new machine next fall. H. L. Brewer of the U.C. Department of Agricultural Engineering reported on machine harvesting of olives during "Olive Day" on the U.C. Campus at Davis. Brewer and Lloyd Lamouria conducted the research.

Laboratory measurement of the forces required to remove olives from the tree has not indicated any possible method more efficient than shaking, Brewer reported. "We would like more basic information, but we think the way is clear to conducting field trials of shaking, this time, with a machine designed primarily for olives," he said.

Oak Booklet Is Available

The University of California has just released a new publication entitled, "Care of Oaks on Home Grounds."

It is designed to give home gardeners basic information on pruning, fertilizer use, pest control practices, and general care of oaks. A copy can be obtained free-of-charge from the Farm and Home Advisors' office, 530 Main street, Half Moon Bay.

Bank's Loans For 3 Months Hit New High

Crocker-Anglo National Bank's loans and capital accounts increased to all-time highs during the first three months of the year.

Assets and all categories of deposits were up substantially over corresponding totals of a year ago, according to figures released by chairman of the board Paul E. Hoover, the bank's chief executive officer.

In addition, the bank's net operating income after taxes was up from corresponding period a year ago.

Deposits Increase

Loans, less loan reserves, came to $1,283,566,937 on March 31, 1963, an increase of $164,663,973 over the corresponding figures of a year ago.

The bank's net operating income, after taxes, amounted to $4,012,207 for the three-month period ended March 31, compared with $3,685,293 for the same period of 1962, and increase of 8.9 per cent.

These results are equal to $6.1 per share for the first three months of 1963 in comparison with $.56 per chair for the corresponding period a year ago.

Materials Packaging Show Set

Chairman Earl Engebrecht has announced that the second annual packaging and materials handling show, sponsored by the Society of Packing and Handling Engineers, would be held May 16, 1963, at the new twin industrial building at the San Mateo County Fairgrounds in San Mateo.

Engebrecht, of Lenkurt Electric Co., San Carlos, stated that the show, a "joint venture" of the Golden Gate chapter and the Central California chapter of SPHE, expects approximately 70 exhibitors to participate in this chance to exhibit their best and latest services, materials, and equipments to commercial, industrial and military users.

The show will exhibit for one full day beginning at 10 a.m. and closing at approximately 10 p.m. It is open to the public and is free of charge to all wishing to view the exhibits or discuss any aspects of packaging or materials handling.

Best of show awards and door prizes will be awarded and competition is quite keen in exhibitors' desire to present their offerings in the best possible manner.

Those desiring further information or wishing to exhibit may contact Engebrecht at Lenkurt Electric Co., Inc., San Carlos.

Banks Agree On Merger

Directors of Crocker-Anglo National bank and Citizens National bank have approved and executed a definitive merger agreement and have set June dates for meetings of the shareholders of the two institutions when the agreement will be submitted to them for their vote.

Announcement of the action of the two boards of directors was made jointly by the chief executive officers of the banks, chairman of the board Paul E. Hoover of Crocker-Anglo, and President Roy A. Britt of Citizens National.

Airliner Sets Speed Record

United Air Lines DC-8 jetliner flight 808 set a transcontinental speed record between San Francisco and Washington, D. C., last week, making the 2188 mile trip in three hours and 51 minutes.

With Capt. J. H. Campbell, 1510 Williams street, Belmont, at the controls, the eastbound DC-8 chopped 34 minutes from the previous record for four hours 25 minutes set by United in 1960.

The jet landed at Dulles International airport.

Recognition

AWARD—Elio Fontana, right, a partner in V. Fontana and company, accepts a safety award certificate on behalf of employes from Phil Wirtz, safety engineer of the State Compensation Insurance fund. The award was given for eight years without a lost-time job injury at the company.

Fontana Company Receives Award

The V. Fontana Monument company at 7600 Mission street, Colma, has received an award from the State Compensation Insurance fund for completing eight consecutive years without a lost-time job injury.

Elio A. Fontana, a partner in the company, received the award on behalf of employes from Phil Wirtz, safety engineer of the state fund.

The company is one of the largest monument manufacturers and retailers on the Pacific Coast.

Fonana said the firm in the past ten years has installed new machinery and additional safety measures at the plant. All employes are taught to handle the new features and are instructed in new safety methods.

Granite blocks shipped to the company's plant opposite Italian Cemetery in Colma sometimes weigh in excess of 10 tons.

They are moved by a new type of safety sling and cables.

Cutting of the granite is accomplished through a wire saw, replacing the old drill and wedge cut and later the back-and-forth steel gang saw.

Fontana represents the fifth generation of Fontana monument builders. His partner include his sister, Mrs. Gloria Tomars and his mother, Mrs. Valerio Fontana.

Bonalanza Is Promoted by Crocker-Anglo

John J. Bonalanza has been named assistant vice president and assistant manager of Crocker-Anglo National bank's South San Francisco office, it was announced by President Emmett G. Solomon.

A resident of South San Francisco since childhood, Bonalanza's banking career there spans a forty-year perod. He joined the former Bank of South San Francisco, predecessor institution to Crocker-Anglo's office, at the end of 1922 and was, successively, assistant cashier, assistant secretary, treasurer and a director of that institution.

When the bank was merged into Crocker-Anglo in the fall of 1955, Bonalanza was named an assistant manager of the South San Francisco office.

Active in the affairs of his community for many years, Bonalanza is currently deputy city treasurer and treasurer of the chamber of commerce. In addition, he is a member of the advisory committee of the Boys' club of South San Francisco and a member of the Young Men's Institute.

The South San Francisco office, located at Grand and Linden avenues, is managed by Vice President John F. McManus. The officer staff also includes Assistant Managers Alfred P. Fourie and George R. Lyman.

BUSINESS AND FINANCE

Insurance Benefits Extended

Extended duration unemployment insurance benefits are now payable under the Miller-Collier Act formula to Californians who exhaust their regular unemployment benefits.

Albert B. Tieburg, director of employment, said today that insured unemployment during the three calendar months of December, 1962, and January and February, 1963, was in excess of the six per cent ratio which triggers payment of extended duration benefits.

Tieburg said an average of 254,818 weeks of insured unemployment was certified during December, January, and February. This was 6.3 per cent of the statutory base of the average of 4,031,088 employes subject to the Unemployment Insurance Code in the four calendar quarters that ended September 30,1962.

Contractors Will Gather In Monterey

Budd O. Stevenson, president of the Associated General Contractors of America, Inc., Northern and Central California chapter has announced plans for the fifth annual spring conference to be held in Monterey tomorrow through Saturday at the Mark Thomas inn.

Harry R. Kunz, Kunz Paving company, and J. P. Sivestri, San Mateo, district chairman and treasurer, respectively, of Associated General Contractors, Inc., participated in the advance planning of the Monterey conference, an annual highlight of the year in the construction industry.

Many of the nation's busiest contractors who build roads, bridges, schools, hospitals and state buildings are members of the largest in the A.G.C. of America.

George Tombleson, president of Tombleson, Inc., of Salinas, and chairman of the conference committee, said the three-day schedule would include a stimulating program featuring outstanding speakers on subjects vital to the industry.

27 Realtors Are Approved

Twenty-seven members of the Pacifica Coastside Board of Realtors have been informed that final approval has been given to their membership in the Bay Area Reciprocal Multiple Listing service.

James Shaugnessy, vice president of the North San Mateo county Board of Realtors, told members of the board that he was confident the service would grow in Pacifica.

Pacifica board chairman Bernie Cohn, reported the Pacifica-Coastside Multiple Listing service has a listed gross value of $1,418,600 and a property sale total of $181,700 to March 1.

Charles Fisher, president of the Pacifica Board of Realtors, said the board and the California Real Estate association will sponsor an educational and sales conference in Millbrae next Wednesday.

Principal speaker will be Al Tomsik of Los Angeles, a nationally recognized sales training expert. Robert Lynwood of Compton will moderate the day-long session.

Buick Sales At Fast Pace

Buick dealers delivered 40,161 cars during March to show the fastest selling pace in the past six years, R. S. Withers, Buick's general sales manager, announced today.

It was the first 40,000 plus month of the current year, and brought Buick's 1963 delivery total to 110,263 units. During 1962, this number of sales was not reached until mid-April. For the model year, beginning October 1, Buick sales are 26.4 per cent ahead of last year.

The month's deliveries included 13,485 specials and 26,676 regular size Buicks. The last 10 days total was 16,412, including 10,775 regular and 5637 specials.

PICTURE WINDOW BROKEN

Stanley Atsholer of 959 Higate avenue reported to Daly City police last week that vandals had broken a picture window in his home.

Why Has U.S. Bureau of Public Roads Accepted the Mammoth Pass Road?

Because when completed it will be an all year, all weather scenic and rapid transportation route between the San Joaquin Valley and points East. Only 7 to 8 miles remain to be completed.
